

PRESS RELEASE

Automotive Meetings Madrid 2025 opens registration for its upcoming edition

- Following two successful editions, this international event dedicated to the automotive supply chain will return this fall.
- It is supported by Antolin, Benteler, CIE Automotive, Ficosa, and Gestamp.
- The event will foster business connections among vehicle manufacturers, suppliers, and service companies.

Madrid, June 5, 2025 — On October 21 and 22, 2025, IFEMA Madrid will host the third edition of Automotive Manufacturing Meetings Madrid. This unique event in Europe is specifically designed to bring together all key players in the automotive supply chain.

Organized by abe – advanced business events in collaboration with the Spanish Association of Automotive Suppliers (SERNAUTO), the event's main goal is to facilitate strategic business relationships among manufacturers, suppliers, and service providers within this essential industry.

The event will feature a structured program including pre-arranged B2B meetings, high-level conferences, and technical workshops. This format is designed to maximize business opportunities and encourage knowledge exchange among participants.

The 2023 edition brought together 600 professionals from 200 companies across 15 countries. Over two days, more than 4,000 business meetings were held, establishing the event as a key international platform for the sector.

Automotive Manufacturing Meetings Madrid is supported by some of the country's leading Tier 1 companies, such as Antolin, Benteler, CIE Automotive, Ficosa and Gestamp.

Among the participants' profiles are exhibitors, usually represented by commercial managers, sales managers, marketing professionals, as well as technical specialists seeking to give visibility to their product and service offerings.

On the other side, buyers include purchasing managers, supply chain managers, development engineers, manufacturing process experts and R&D professionals interested in identifying new suppliers, evaluating technology solutions and establishing strategic alliances.
